

L.P.Pacific Films sdn. bhd, located in Pasir Gudang, Malaysia, is a company producing surface materials for the plywood and HPL industry worldwide. The company started up in 1997 and employs 50 persons.

LPPF is part of surfactor Group www.surfactor.com, a medium-sized company successfully active in the chemical industry since more than 75 years. The head-quarter is located in Germany.

On three production sites in Germany, Finland and Malaysia resin impregnated surface coatings for the wood material and automotive industry are produced and developed. With decades of expertise combined with the latest technology, surfactor is the technology and market leader worldwide. The group has an annual turnover at EUR80M with 270 employees. High quality, flexibility and short response times are essential strengths of our company.

For our location in Pasir Gudang, Malaysia we are looking for an

Product Development and Technical Customer Service Engineer

Your tasks:

- Responsibility for product & process development and technical service for the plywood and HPL customers
- Technical support including solving customer's needs and feedbacks
- Coordinate product development with sales and product development in Germany and Finland
- Introduction and testing of new raw materials and chemicals suitable for the product
- Exploration of new end-use for the product
- Monitoring of competitions products, market presence and developments

Your profile:

- Your education is in chemistry or chemical engineering
- Preferably in polymer chemistry and with good knowledge of mechanical engineering
- Willingness to travel and work with customers from different cultures and countries
- Fluent in English language
- A self-motivated, result driven team player, with ability to multi-task and manage time effectively
- Preferable 3-5 year experience in chemical, wood working or plywood industry

Our offer:

- Location is in Pasir Gudang, Malaysia
- Personal development in an international company
- Member of the international product development team

Please send your CV in English with your salary expectation by e-mail not later than 31.7.2017 to Md Farid

Md.Farid@surfactor.com

For further information please contact Mikael Stromberg by email to Mikael.stroemberg@surfactor.com or by phone +60127010794.